

TIME IS RUNNING OUT!

History Is Now: Photographs by Donna Granata

Save This Date: Monday, January 5 - 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

You are invited to join FOTM for a guided tour by Donna Granata before this major exhibition is history.....

This extraordinary exhibit -- one-hundred-sixteen portraits of Ventura County's leading artists -- at the Thousand Oaks Civic Arts Plaza Kavli Theatre will close on January 12, 2009. On Monday, January 5 at 3:30, Donna Granata will conduct a tour of the exhibit, providing special insights into the photographs and the artists portrayed. Even if you have already "seen" the portraits, this is a not-to-be-missed experience. Prepare to be delighted as Donna recounts anecdotes, tells the behind-the-scenes stories of the portraits and shares the trials, tribulations and joys of documenting the artists who have so enriched our lives. Lots of time for your questions!

Normal visiting hours for this exhibit are at the time of regularly scheduled performances. Focus on the Masters has been granted special permission to open the Kavli galleries for this tour. There is no charge for this event - it is our New Year's gift to the community. (Donations are always welcome - and needed, of course!)

Focus on the Masters documents and celebrates amazing artists. Come! Be part of the celebration!

Exhibition catalogs available at the exhibit or online at www.FocusOnTheMasters.com .
Members: $20 General Public $25

For additional information, kindly call Focus on the Masters at 805/653-2501.
Please see the following recent articles published in Ventana Monthly, the Ventura County Reporter and the Ventura County Star in regards to History Is Now: Portraits by Donna Granata, Focus on the Masters Portrait Series.

For a preview of all of the new portraits visit the Artist's Gallery at:
www.FocusOnTheMasters.com

Ventana Monthly - Focus on the Women by Maxine Hurt
<http://www.ventanamonthly.com/article.php?id=326&IssueNum=30>

The Ventura County Reporter - A Guest in Her Own Home by Matthew Singer http://www.vcreporter.com/cms/story/detail/a_guest_in_her_own_home/6335/

The Ventura County Star - Volunteering –The Art of Working by Mary Galbraith <http://www.venturacountystar.com/news/2008/sep/29/volunteering----the-art-of-working/>

We are looking forward to seeing everyone on Monday.

Thank you for your valuable support and happy holidays!